About Regional Development Australia - Orana

Regional Development Australia (RDA) Orana is part of a national network committed to regional development through leadership, innovation, and collaboration. We enhance the economic, social, and environmental sustainability of the 12 Local Government Areas of Orana region.

About the Welcome Experience

The Welcome Experience assists key public sector workers and their families in preparing for and settling into regional NSW communities. By connecting newcomers with local resources and people, we aim to create a welcoming environment that encourages long-term residency.

About the Role

We're seeking two dynamic and proactive Local Connectors to support key workers in Dubbo (inc Wellington) and Bourke. As a bridge between new essential workers and the community, you'll collaborate with employers and local groups to ensure a welcoming experience across sectors including education, healthcare, law enforcement, and community services.

Key Responsibilities

- Engagement and Support: Act as the primary contact for new essential workers, facilitating connections with local resources.
- Cultural Sensitivity: Demonstrate awareness and support for diverse community members.
- Relocation Assistance: Guide essential workers through relocation stages: Attract, Prepare, Welcome, and Stay.
- Community Engagement: Design and host events to integrate newcomers and promote collaboration.
- Administration: Maintain accurate records and manage budgets using CRM systems.

What We're Looking For

- Attributes: Sociable, creative, empathetic, problem-solver, and collaborative.
- Commitment: Strong dedication to program values and community knowledge.
- Flexibility: Ability to work outside normal hours to meet worker needs.
- Skills: Effective communication, problem-solving, planning, and customer service orientation.

Why Join Us?

- Impactful Work: Make a real difference in your community by helping essential workers feel at home.
- Collaborative Environment: Work with a network of Local Connectors across NSW.
- Dynamic Role: Engage in varied activities from event planning to community support.
